

Pittsburg Raid to Reveal Dorothy Arnold Mystery

Authorities Say She Was One of the Victims of the House of Mystery a Maternity Hospital

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 18.—It is believed the mystery of the disappearance of Miss Dorothy Arnold, the pretty New York heiress, who left her father's home December 12, 1910 and has not been heard of since has been cleared up in a raid on the house of mystery, a hospital conducted at Bellevue, a suburb of this city.

Dr. C. C. Meredith, head of the hospital and Lucy D. Ors, alias Lucy D. Damms, his head nurse, have been arrested for the murder of Mrs. Myrtle Allison of Wilkesburg, Pa., who District Attorney R. H. Jackson claims he can prove was murdered in the house of mystery.

Miss Arnold Was There
Attorney Jackson also claims he can prove that Dorothy Arnold was at one time a patient in the hospital, and that probably she died there. Part of the evidence in Attorney Jackson's hands is a confession of Dr. H. E. Lutz, Dr. Meredith's confederate. The hospital has long been known as the House of Mystery. In the big isolated institution on a high bluff overlooking the murky Ohio river many women met a gruesome fate according to the confessions of Dr. Lutz. The victims probably numbered a score and among them he said, was Dorothy Arnold.

Mystery of Other Women
Before the investigation is completed it is hoped not only to clear up the mystery of the disappearance of the wealthy New York perfume importer's daughter, but also the strange disappearance of other women.

According to the alleged Lutz confession several Pittsburg physicians acted as feeders for the hospital, sending to Meredith for illegal operations women who came to them. In a number of cases where complications resulted and were followed by death the remains of the victims would be heartlessly consigned to the monster furnace in the basement according to Lutz.

Dr. Lutz said he sent Mrs. Allison to Meredith about a year ago. Lutz said he is almost a wreck as a result of his part in the support of the hospital. He described Meredith as a fanatic, apparently obsessed by love of brutality.

Some time after sending Mrs. Allison to Meredith Lutz asked Meredith where she was, he said. Well doctor, don't you think this is dangerous work? Lutz claims to have asked Meredith.

Admits Heiress Was There
Well, Lutz said he was told there was a certain party that came to me from New York and was traced as far as my office. It was Dorothy Arnold.

When asked what had become of her, Meredith is said to have motioned skyward with both his hands, indicating Lutz declared, that she had been cremated.

Attorney Jackson smiled at reports from New York that John Keith attorney for Francis Arnold, father of Dorothy, investigated the story and found nothing in it.

Lutz has come through with the details, he said. We have evidence that Dorothy Arnold was traced right through the door of Meredith's office. We have evidence that we have broken up one of the worst institutions of its kind in the country.

World Search Is Made
Dorothy Arnold left her father's home in New York December 12, 1910. She went to Brentano's for a book and a box of candy and then dropped from sight so completely that a search made all over the civilized world has failed to develop a trace of her.

Attorney Jackson claims to have every link in the chain to prove that Mrs. Allison was murdered in the House of Mystery.

An effort will be made to prove that other women who have strangely dropped from sight were also murdered in the Bellevue sanitarium.

A prudent mother is always on the watch for symptoms of worms in her children. Paleness, lack of interest in play, and peevishness is the signal for WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE. A few doses of this excellent remedy puts an end to the worms and the child soon acts naturally. Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by Riter Bros. Drug Co.—Advertisement.

SKIDMORE IS CHOSEN PRESIDENT

Salt Lake, April 18.—Earl V. Skidmore was elected president of the student body of the University of Utah yesterday and Clyde Sharp was chosen editor of the Utah Chronicle in one of the most exciting student elections ever held at the state institution. These two offices are considered the most important in the student body and there were many strong candidates.

The race for president was so close that the successful candidate had only a majority of forty-three. For the office of editor of the Chronicle the vote was even closer. Sharp winning by a majority of twenty-seven. Other candidates for president of the student body were William Argyle and Milton Love. Argyle was second in the race and Love third. For the editorship of the Chronicle Roscoe Ashworth, Murray McCarty and Leslie Frazer were also candidates. Ashworth received the second highest number of votes for this office.

GERMANY IS READY TO COMPENSATE

Paper Says Plan Is To Pay Damages Under Monopoly Law

Berlin, April 18.—An apparently inspired statement is published by the Frankfurt Zeitung regarding the proposed oil monopoly law against which it is reported the United States government is preparing to protest.

There is no question, it is declared that American interests are being injured. Germany will obtain by far the greatest part of its oil from America, but not, as hitherto, exclusively from the Standard Oil, against whose monopoly the scheme is directed.

Thus, it is added the German government is doing the same thing as the American legislatures and courts endeavored to do, but unsuccessfully. President Wilson says the Journal, has every reason to support the German proposals for they are entirely in line with his policy.

The Lokal Anzeiger says the government has considered the possibility of injury to foreign concerns and therefore has planned to set aside a certain sum for purposes of compensation. The reichstag committee reduced this amount, but the government disagreed to this and there is no doubt, in consideration of German relations with the United States the full amount will be restored.
